NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

Newsletter News: No news this issue.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcement #1: EqualityMaine is looking to identify local leaders around the state who can serve as EqualityMaine Local Resource Leaders. These people will help EQME expand their presence in the state by developing a network of community leaders from each county in Maine. Resource leaders be offered training and will be a voice for the LGBT community in their area to inform EqualityMaine of the needs and strengths of their community. If you are interested in finding out more about this project please contact Program Coordinator Gia Drew at gdrew@equalitymaine.org.

Announcement #2: Audition for OUT & ALLIED: THE PERFORMANCE on February 4 (Tuesday) at USM in Portland. Are you an actor? Are you an activist? Out & Allied: The Performance is a 30-minute performance piece, comprised of four short pieces adapted from scripts published in Volume 2 of Out and Allied: The Anthology. Out & Allied: The Anthology features LGBTQ and ally-written monologues, focusing on the experiences of LGBTQ youth, and serves as a handbook for schools, spiritual communities, friends, and family to celebrate the resilience of LGBTQ youth. Tuesday, February 4th from 5-8 PM at USM- PORTLAND CAMPUS in SCIENCE BLDG ROOM 262 Sides available at audition. No prior acting experience necessary, though welcome! Gender-flexible casting. Tentative performance dates: March 8 OR 9th, March 13, April 25, May 2 Contact Caroline O'Connor @ caroline.oconoor@maine.edu or at (207) 251-8308 for more information.

OpEd from Rita, ralbwriter44@gmail.com.

Monday 1/20/2014 was the birthday of Martin Luther King. We celebrate his birthday as a way of celebrating the man and all that he did for his people. Equity is the message he drove home in every speech, every piece of writing, every interview, every conversation.

What is equity? According to the Wordbook app, equity is fairness. According to the thesaurus in the app, equity is justice, fair play, rightful, lawful, impartiality to list a few of the words.

Rev. Dr. King talked about all of these things. He used example after example of how people of color, the Negro, were not treated fairly, with justice, lawfully, or with fair play. In fact, as we all know, people of color were treated outrageously and inequitably. Some would say this continues today. For those of us who are LGBTQI we know what this unequal treatment is about.

Historically, the Gay Rights Movement began well before the Rev. Dr. King began his quest for equal rights but there are significant parallels. In 1924 in Chicago, the Society for Human Rights was established and became the earliest known gay rights movement. In 1951 The Mattachine Society became the first national gay rights organization and in 1955 the Daughters of Bilitis was founded in San Francisco becoming the first lesbian rights organization.

Some of us who were alive when the Stonewall Uprising occurred on June 28, 1969 in Greenwich Village New York and we remember someone calling this event "...the Rosa Parks moment."

Similarities abound between our effort to secure equality and the Rev. Dr. King's efforts. He was murdered in 1968. The effort to continue his work has remained strong and uncompromisable as has our effort as we parallel our histories and our impatience for what we all perceive and know is the rightness of our cause.

As we remembered him on his birthday, we remember others like George Moscone for his courage in appointing Harvey Milk to the Board of Permit Appeals making him the first openly gay city commissioner and ultimately on the Board of Supervisors also murdered because of who he was. We remember Del Martin and Phyllis Lyon who co-founded the Daughters of Bilitis, Joe Cino who hosted the first gay plays, and the city of Berkeley who in 1984 became the first city in the US to offer its employees domestic-partnership benefits. And the list goes on into today where we honor all those who on June 30, 2011 made history by placing on the ballot a voter initiative to support same gender marriage and who on November 6, 2012 successfully voted to legalize same gender marriage; making Maine the fifth New England state and one of seventeen states in the union to legalize same gender marriage. We have come a long way and we have a long way to go.

Were the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King alive today I imagine he would say the same about race relations and racial equality. But the good news is every day there is progress because every day people across this country talk with each other about these topics, and show example of how we can reach equality, fair treatment, impartiality, co-existence in the fullest sense.

We honor all of those who have taken their fear and pushed it aside to stand with courage along side others to create a country of like minded individuals who whatever their political bent, understand that "Equality is the soul of liberty; there is, in fact, no liberty without it." [Frances Wright 9/6/1795-12/13/1852: feminist, abolitionist, social reformer.]

EVENTS (CHANGING):

FEBRUARY

February 6 (Thursday) Brunswick (Bowdoin College). "Obscure Identities,' a reflection on men of transsexual experience through painting." presents paintings from 2009 to the present by East Village artist Zen Browne. These portraits of transsexual men meditate on identity and serve to counteract the underrepresentation of the transsexual experience in visual culture. They also mirror Browne's own sense of selfhood, both artistically and personally. Where Browne's past work has documented a self-expression in flux through allegorical representation, his adaption of the portrait form serves to ground these themes of transformation in everyday life, producing representations of friends and acquaintances that are at once intimate and real. The portraits on view strive to locate a commonality on the plane of human experience, while initiating a constructive dialogue about the spectrum and self-expression of gender identity. Browne's return to figural representation reflects his interest in the formal characteristics of painting. It has allowed him the opportunity to explore color, the play of light, and the human form in his own expressive style. His absorption with the material reality of the painting process can be seen in several works-in-process presented alongside a video documenting Browne at work in his studio. Obscure Identities film-http://zenbrowne.com/?page_id=319 The show's opening is scheduled for Thursday, February 6, 2014 at 4:30 pm in the Blue Gallery, located in Smith Union here on campus (the building near the large polar bear sculpture). We will also be hosting a panel discussion on trans* experiences and representation with the artist and one of the models at the end of the month. This panel will be held on Thursday, February 27th @ 7 pm in Burnett House, one of the campus residence halls.

February 7 – 9 (Friday – Sunday). Newry. WOW Weekend - GLBT Ski Weekend. At Sunday River Ski Resort in Newry, Maine. DownEast Pride Alliance (DEPA) is proud to co-host the Sunday River White Out Weekend (WOW) again this winter season in association with The OutRyders, New England's largest GLBTQ ski & snowboard club. WOW is all about stellar skiing and riding with friends, special events, and parties, including a mid-mountain themed party, a zip line parade, fireworks, and après ski socials. You do not need to be a skier to attend this fun weekend and enjoy the festivities. FMI and to reserve your room now, call (207)824-3000.

February 11 (Tuesday). Portland. Where Careers and Identities Cross: USM LGBTQ Alumni Panel. In advance of USM's Job Fair, we invite you to join us as LGBTQ alumni discuss some of the unique challenges and joys of being out in the job search, and workplace. Where Careers and Identities Cross: USM Alumni, and members of the LGBTQ communities, talk about their experiences and how they navigate the intersection of their professional and personal (and sometimes political) worlds. Sponsored by the Center for Sexualities and Gender Diversity and Portland Student Life. Refreshments will be served. Are you an alumna/us of USM and want to be on this panel? Contact Sarah Holmes at sholmes@usm.maine.edu

February 12 (Wednesday). Portland. Rainbow Business & Professional Association Mixer with Meaning: "Out, and Still in the Game." At the Sebago Brewing Company, 211 Fore Street, Portland from 5:30pm-7:30pm. James Nutter will discuss his journey as a talented athlete that struggled with coming out. The world of sports has historically been unwelcoming of gay athletes. That world is changing, largely because of advocates like James sharing their story and supporting other athletes as they come out and still stay in the game. Tickets are $10 per person. The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or books@usm.maine.edu.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine GayNet Listserve. A long-running listserve for the Maine GLBTQ community which allows members to post notices, opinions, etc. (in a broadcast manner) to everyone else on the listserve. To join the Maine GayNet listserve, go to <http://groups.queernet.org/sympa/subscribe/me-gaynet>

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Maine Lesbians Listserve Anyone who identifies as a lesbian is welcome to join. The website address is: <http://groups.google.com/group/maine-lesbians> Women can request to join from the website or email me: pputnam@mac.com

Proud Lesbians of Poverty We seek people to join the group as we explore ways to improve the civil rights of GLBTQ's of poverty who cannot afford a lawyer to enforce their Gay Civil Rights, or their original Human Rights as a person. We are open to all people of any background. FMI contact Jan at janshouse@yahoo.com or phone 207-453-2353 or join the yahoo group at <http://health.groups.yahoo.com/group/ProudLesbians/>

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersex) community, sent out around the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine only. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It's crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board. Someday, it may also become a website.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it! However, outside events (such as holiday fairs, festivals, the local chamber of commerce, etc.) that are not focused on the GLBTQI community and do not have a significant GLBTQI component will not be listed in the FAN.

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, no obscenity is allowed, and I reserve the right to not include a posting for any reason (although if I do reject a post, I will attempt to let you know the reason).

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Also, listings are posted with information as is submitted to me, and I do not verify them so have no independent knowledge of the accuracy, truth, or falsity of any posts, events, advertisements, job listings, rental listings, etc. Respond at your own risk. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
